Hi I posted this in the Kioti forum but haven't received any replies so thought I'd try the Mahindra group... Hi - looking for some opinions. I have had a Chinese Jinma 28 hp for 10 years which has been great in terms of learning how to fix tractors! Since the weather has cooled off, I've noticed that I've had trouble getting my Mahindra 4110 to start. The normal start sequence is to turn the ignition key counter clockwise, at which point the light on the dash for the glow plugs should illuminate.
