From prosecco to paté, there are a few things you need to steer clear of in pregnancy. It doesn't mean a total ban on "fun" but it's worth brushing up on the list of prenatal no-nos. I don't have personal experience of this but send you my best wishes for the pregnancy and beyond. I would say that many men have children in their mid to late 40s now as routine (my DH is one) and that they are rarely criticised by society.
