Whether your home is small or large, an apartment in the city or a country cottage, it is a space that should be at once beautiful and livable. The key to that is managing the upkeep without feeling flustered. Although a home improvement is one of the safest forms of financial investment, there is one pitfall that is often overlooked: . Did you realise that although a contractor's business guarantee can cover faulty workmanship and materials, it is only valid if the contractor is still trading or able and willing to honour his guarantee if not. Maintaining your defibrillator. When purchasing a defibrillator many people believe that once the up front payment is made that is it. Unfortunately, this is not true. You probably don't think much about the network of water and sewer pipes inside your walls that deliver your hot and cold water -- and eliminate your waste -- on demand. But giving your plumbing a little regular attention can prolong its life, prevent leaks, and avoid costly repairs. Here's how ...
