Drugs and the Criminal Law Legal advice and useful information: Drugs & criminal law Misuse of Drugs Act Possession Supply Production Import/Export The rumours on Geelong drug-cheating throughout their dynasty won't go away and all signs lead to dope-filled success. It is no coincidence that the biggest sport criminals in Australia were at Geelong throughout their golden years and I am disgusted that St Kilda, Collingwood and Port Adelaide missed out on success due to cheating scum. The prohibition of drugs through sumptuary legislation or religious law is a common means of attempting to prevent the recreational use of certain intoxicating substances. While some drugs are illegal to possess, many governments regulate the manufacture, distribution, marketing, sale and use of certain drugs, for instance through a prescription system. For example, amphetamines may be ...
